GREEN HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AS AN ELEMENT OF GREEN BUSINESS PROCESS MANAGEMENT

ABSTRAKT

The article addresses current topics related to a sustainable approach to business process management (BPM), in which aspects of human resource management play an important role. This study aims to answer the following research question: What is the relationship between Green BPM and GreenHRM? For the purpose of this article literature review combined with scientific reflection were used. This study – being the first which discusses the linkage between GBPM and GHRM – contributes to the development of knowledge through (1) analysis and synthesis of literature on GBPM, (2) combining the issue of GPBM with GHRM, (3) showing directions for future empirical research focusing on the linkage between GBPM and GHRM.
